

Child and Adult Protection in the Catholic Church in Scotland

Request to abuse survivors for help with an independent review of RC Diocese of Dunkeld

The Social Care Institute for Excellence is conducting an external, independent review of safeguarding arrangements in the Catholic Church in Scotland.

The focus

The independent team want to hear from people with first-hand experience of how people in diocesan roles have responded, or failed to respond to disclosures of abuse or sharing of concerns.

They want to understand what is working well and what has gone wrong in the past.

They are looking at the responses of people in diocesan roles to knowledge of abuse by clergy or risks posed by clergy and others in Church-related roles, paid or voluntary.

At this stage, they are only focusing on responses from people in the Diocese of Dunkeld.

An independent, confidential process

The diocese will have no role in this except to help to publicise that the audit is taking place and that the external team want to hear from abuse survivors.

We recommend that you speak to SCIE staff directly.

Nobody at any level in the Church will be told that you are taking part.

What you tell SCIE will be confidential and will not be shared with the diocese except as part of an overall report which will absolutely not identify you.

SCIE expect the diocese to publish the report. Copies of the report will be made available to survivors.

Contact details

If you feel able to contribute, please contact SCIE directly:

By email on learningtogether@scie.org.uk

By phone on 07921 251614

SCIE will then get in touch to arrange a time at your convenience to meet with the auditors.

Thank you

Taking part is likely to have an emotional cost for you. Please draw on all the support you need. SCIE and the diocese thank you sincerely in advance for your help. We are anxious to ensure that lessons are learnt and injustices of the past are put right and not repeated in the future.

We would again emphasise that this is an external independent audit. If you have any questions about the review or taking part, please get in touch, using the contact details above.